Dear Pastor or Church Leader:

I met with Jeff Van Dyke today and he laid out his proposal for the Championship Quiz League. I found his ideas to be both exciting and inspiring. I would personally love to see a Bible Quiz League where church and Christian School teens would be challenged to form teams for the purpose of studying God's Word and then competing against other teams. Jeff seems very capable and very organized. Pleasant Grove Baptist will be supporting Jeff in this effort by including the Championship Quiz League in our 2004 budget. Pleasant Grove Christian Academy will also support this effort.

I would like to encourage you to meet with Jeff and hear his ideas. Pray about supporting this idea financially and any other way you see fit. I look forward to the possibility of an interdenominational league where we can compete with a heavenly goal in mind.....the education of our students in the Word of God.

Thank you for any consideration you can give to Jeff and his ministry idea.

In His Love,

Dr. Tony Beam
Pastor
